Yucketypoo - The Monster That Grew and Grew

(ISBN 978-0-9549165-2-7)

Written by Jilly Henderson-Long
Illustrated by Ashley Stevens
Published by Lollypop Publishing Ltd

This delightful poem book is the first in a series aimed at 5-7 year olds with the specific intention of making children aware of their environment. It is the story of a creature that grows from the rubbish left lying around by the townsfolk. Threatening to take over the world, it is down to a little girl to save the day. Lovely poems take you through the story and introduce you to the pond and the fishes that live there.

Jilly shows children through her charming rhyme that to make the environment a much nicer place to be they must discard their litter responsibly.

Due for publication on 1st December 2007 Price £5.95 (P/B) Also in the Yucketypoo Series
